

2011 WCMS Summer Festival Limericks
Co-penned by Ian and Jacob Hoover

Peter

Peter on the viola is intense and his musical abilities immense Thayer launched on his whim, and if 'tweren't for him we'd not be here now nor years hence.

Rohan

In this midsummer Festival (our revelry estival) his hijinks are always the best of all.
A sprite on a mad fiddle, Sir Rohan Gregorius, our yoga guru and a mafia boss, Oh, he leads us in capers most glorious and he's not quite half bad at the frisbee-toss

Krista

Of Thayer the Krista's top cop (sorry, of WCMS Summer Festival etc.) and her playing does sure pack a whop she's also intent on good management (in any event
no penny's misspent)
...without her this shindig would flop.

Jan

Jan is a man most serene his thoughts on all topics are keen a god on the cello and a capital fellow his music is always supreme

Ian : a limerick (and I use that term loosely):

In year 2 came the son of the Wat, a legend on keys and what not;
though impatient with mortals,
his quips bring on chortles;
he's grand and we like him a lot
...what? <repeat>
